Mortgage Declarations

These declarations set out what you can expect from us when you make an application to take out a mortgage with us – and what we ask of you, to help us process your application and keep your mortgage running smoothly.

These declarations apply to everyone named in the mortgage application or mortgage account, together and as individuals.

In these declarations you are making a number of statements of truth and are accepting you understand that we will be applying for certain information from other people in order to assess your application.

It is important that you read these declarations carefully and ensure you understand them.

Your information

Barclays is committed to protecting your personal data. We will use your information for a number of different purposes, for example, to manage your account(s), to provide our products and services to you and others and to meet our legal and regulatory obligations. We may also share your information with our trusted 3rd parties for these purposes. For more detailed information on how and why we use your information, including the rights in relation to your personal data, and our legal grounds for using it, please go to barclays.co.uk/important-information/control-your-data or you can request a copy from us.

Credit reference agencies and fraud prevention agencies

In order to process your application we will supply your personal information to credit reference agencies and fraud prevention agencies and they will give us information about you, such as about your financial history. We do this to assess creditworthiness and product suitability, check your identity, manage your account, trace and recover debts and prevent criminal activity. These agencies may in turn share your personal information with other organisations. If fraud is detected, you could be refused certain services, finance or employment. Once you open an account with us, we will share account data with the credit reference agencies on an ongoing basis.

If false or inaccurate information is provided to us and fraud is identified, details may be passed to credit reference and fraud prevention agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering and to verify your identity.

The Credit Reference Agency Information Notice (CRAIN) describes how the three main credit reference agencies in the UK each use and share personal data. The CRAIN is available on the credit reference agencies' websites:

- transunion.co.uk/crain
- equifax.co.uk/crain
- experian.co.uk/crain

Or you can ask us for a copy of these.

For more details on how information held by credit reference agencies and fraud prevention agencies may be used, please go to barclays.co.uk/important-information/control-your-data or you can request a copy from us.

Sharing information about you with tax authorities abroad

If we have reason to think that you are required to report your income or are subject to tax in another country, we may have to share information about your accounts with the UK or relevant tax authorities, either directly or via the local tax authority who may share that information with the appropriate tax authorities abroad. If we need to request extra documents or information from you about this, you must supply these. If you don't, you agree that we may close your account, or, if the law or other regulations requires us to do so, you agree that we may withhold parts of certain payments received into your account and pass withheld funds to the relevant tax authorities (this is more likely if you leave the UK and become resident for tax purposes in another country).

These declarations are important. They apply to each applicant applying for or having an Interest Only or Part and Part Mortgage. Please read them carefully.

These declarations supplement the general declarations provided to you as part of your mortgage application. They must be read in conjunction with these.

"you/your/yours" means the customer(s) applying for the mortgage product.

"we/us/our/ours" means Barclays Bank UK PLC and its wholly and partly owned subsidiaries and any company in which it has an interest by way of a shareholding or any company in a group of companies to which it may belong ("Barclays Group").

You make the following declarations to us:

1. You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to ensure that you have a suitable repayment plan in place to pay off your total mortgage balance at the end of the agreed term.

2. You acknowledge that where your repayment plan requires regular payments you have an obligation to ensure that all these payments are kept up to date and to regularly check that your repayment plan is on target to repay your mortgage on the scheduled maturity date.
3. You understand that we have not provided you with advice in respect of the repayment plan or on any return you have stated you expect to receive in respect of that repayment plan.
4. You acknowledge that you may have to sell the mortgaged property at the end of the term of the mortgage in order to repay your mortgage if;
 - (a) you have advised us in your application that your intention is to use the sale of the mortgaged property as your repayment plan; or
 - (b) you fail to maintain your repayment plan; or
